CHICAGO, FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1907.

PRICE 5 CENTS

THE OZONE TO BLUE HERON.

EMERY'S COLT BEATS KEENE'S MASKS AND FACES IN A DRIVE.

W. H. Carey Wins the Mile Handicap—Four Successful Favorites—Walter Miller Rides Three of the Winners.

New York, April 18.—This was favorite's day at Aqueduct, four of the winners—Frizette, Mary Morris, W. H. Carey and Tim O'Toole—being heavily backed choices, while the other two—Blue Heron and Ace High—were not friendless. There was a big improvement in the size of the fields and the racing had more snap to it than on the two preceding days. Walter Miller came into the limelight by riding three winners, a second and a third out of five mounts.

W. H. Carey, the hero of the Ascot Park meeting, made his first appearance in the east in the mile handicap, and although supported by the stable, the price went steadily up while there was generous backing for Tartan and Samuel H. Harris. W. H. Carey carried 126 pounds and, although outrun early, he was much the best and won easily enough. His first stake engagement here is the Queens County Handicap at one mile, to be run Saturday, for which his weight will be 115 pounds.

The season has started well for Andy Blakeley, who used to ride steeplechasers for Ed Corrigan. Blakeley is training for Sam Emery and has had two starters and two winners. Blue Heron won the Ozone Stake for him today, beating James R. Keene's Masks and Faces, a winner Tuesday in a drive, and Master Robert scored for him yesterday.

Sir Toddington, showing vast improvement over his previous race, was just beaten by Ace High in a hard drive, the victory being due to the superiority of Miller over Hennessy as a jockey. Sir Toddington could not raise a common gallop Monday when a 1 to 2 favorite.

Blakestown, Richard Croker's entry for the Suburban Handicap, was today declared from that event.

Jockey L. Williams has arrived from Oakland and has made application for license.

Al Hamel says Notasulga is not for sale. It is understood that he declined an offer of $12,000 for the filly.

War against the poolrooms is being relentlessly waged. The sheets of canvas are up and two men caught wig-wagging results to confederates in the tower outside of the grounds have been arrested.

Koerner, who was suspended for three days, by starter Cassidy on the opening day, will return to the saddle tomorrow.

Thomas Calhoun, which was bid up and taken for $1,700 by Jules Garson after his race Monday, is back in the barn of H. T. Griffin, who gave Garson an advance over the $1,700.

The Arverne Stakes is the main feature for tomorrow, but the program is promising all around and, with Jacquin, Ed Ball, Battleaxe; Dr. Gardner, Avanteer, Healsip; Silberschwarz, Marston, Trey of Spades; Clare Russell, Okenite, Workmaid; Bell-suiker, Molesey, Lord Badge; Lady Isabel, Rosario and Gossoon among the good horses named to start, high-class racing seems a certainty.

ARRIVALS AT PIMLICO.

Baltimore, Md., April 18.—Stable room at Pimlico for the meeting that will open Saturday is at a premium and late comers are taking whatever they can find. Horses have been arriving at the track daily since last week. The track is in better shape than ever. Three-quarters in 1:15 in workouts has been a daily occurrence, and there is no longer any doubt in the minds of horsemen who are here that some new track records will be set. The steeplechase course is in its best condition.

Among the recent arrivals from New Orleans were S. W. Streetett & Co., J. J. Mackessey, O. W. Deppeler, R. E. Watkins, the latter with Belle Strom, Flavigny, Allouby and several others, and M. J. Daly with Kara and Prince Brutus is another later arrival. C. E. Mahone got in yesterday from Hot Springs with Thistle Do, Massive, Lady Gay, Spanker and Prince of Orange.

BAKER'S HORSES AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., April 18.—The stable of J. H. Baker arrived here today from Louisville to race at the coming spring meeting. In the stable are Gauze, Monochord, French Nun, Lochgoil, Abing-ton, La Samada, Red Queen and Emma V. Ed Corrigan has secured stable room for six horses which he will race here during the meeting.

HALF BROTHER TO ROXANE.

Lexington, Ky., April 18.—Ondina, by Onondaga, belonging to Mrs. E. O. Pepper, has foaled a chestnut colt by Resolute II, at Meadowthorpe farm. This youngster is a half-brother to Roxane that held a mile race record of 1:38 and is now in the Hurricane Stud at Amsterdam, N. Y.

CRUZADOS NOT SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Oakland, Calif., April 18.—Early Wright, who arrived from Los Angeles yesterday with E. J. Baldwin's horses, says that Cruzados, which ran into a tree at the Baldwin ranch recently, is not as badly injured as was reported. He was considerably bunged up, but is rapidly rounding to.

Mrs. Emma Coburn has been granted a divorce from "Monk" Coburn, the former jockey, who is in prison in Louisiana.

DR. ARNOLD FRANK DRAWS HOT FIRE.

Says Kentucky Thoroughbreds Are Not Suited for Use in the German Army.

New York, April 18.—A vociferous protest has gone up from Kentucky and all American horseland against the strictures of Dr. Arnold Frank, the Kaiser's official "vet," on the Kentucky thoroughbred.

Dr. Frank has been down in the blue grass country looking for thoroughbreds for use in the German army. He wanted, he said, to buy a thousand head. He bought eight, and then gave it out that the Kentucky horse didn't suit his purposes. And this in Lexington.

Lexington's answer is that Dr. Frank wasn't willing to pay the prices of Kentucky thoroughbreds and that's the reason he couldn't find anything to suit him. As for the quality of the stock, it would take more than a German "vet" to shake Kentucky's faith in its own pet product.

New York horsemen string their bets with the Kentuckians on this proposition. Major John M. Burke, for example, has a considerable store of horse lore gathered in many climes. This is what he had to say:

"I do not agree with the German cavalry officer. The Kentucky horses were originally used for mountain country and the roads in Europe are generally nearly perfect. Therefore I think a Kentucky horse, that has a record from 'way back,' when the roads were only trails, would be the most valuable animal today for rapidity of mobilization, more so than the German cavalry horse."

"Fifty or sixty years ago the saddle horse was almost necessity all over the south and southwest, and the result has been a race of superior saddle beasts.

"The Kentucky horse lent distinction to both armies in the last war, which resulted in such magnificent cavalry service as that of Rousseau, 'Jeb' Stuart, John Morgan and 'Little' Joe Wheeler on the one side, and on the other of Grierson, Kilpatrick, Pleasonton, McCook, Custer, and the greatest cavalryman in history, General Phil Sheridan.

"It seems to me that speed will be a great requirement in the next war, as cavalry, to be effective, must be used to reach points before the artillery can cover the objective, and the cavalryman will have to adopt the Phil Sheridan methods of 'getting there' quickly, dismounting and fighting as infantry to assist in victory.

"I should judge that the horse that has made a reputation under conditions where, you might say, there were practically no roads, had to forage for himself and was never groomed would have to be taken into consideration. I allude to the western range horse, and even with him you have to consider the Kentucky thoroughbred horse strain prevailed among the best of them.

"The typical native horse is now very scarce, but we all know that the range horse, crossed by the Kentucky, has exhibited remarkable stamina. He was a horse that lived under conditions which existed in no other country and could go further on shorter commons and carry more in ratio to his own weight than history records for any other horse. He was practically a combination, after three centuries of separation, of the ancient Spanish Arab horse brought to this country by Cortez, and the English thoroughbred or Kentucky horse with its distant strain of Arab blood via England."

NEWCOMERS AT AQUEDUCT.

Two of the five two-year-olds carded to make their first starts at Aqueduct today are the property of James R. Keene and were bred by him at Castleton Stud. They are Selectus, by Voter—Bellfield II, and Sepoy, by St. Leonards—Nauch Girl. Selectus is a half-brother to Mirabel, Hocus Pocus, Gloria Mundu, Choirmaster and Sangerbound. Sepoy is the second foal of Nauch Girl, but her first to race. Nauch Girl was bred by Mr. Keene and as a two-year-old in 1897 she carried his colors in one race, at Morris Park, and won it. She was not raced as a three-year-old, but won three times out of eleven starts as a four-year-old. This ended her career on the turf. She was bred to Ben Brush in the spring of 1901 and the following December was sent to England. No foal resulted from this mating and in 1902 she was sent to the court of Merman in England and in 1903 dropped a chestnut colt which was named Sea Serpent and was brought to the United States at the foot of his dam in the fall of 1903, after she had been covered by St. Frusquin. Again she was barren and in 1904 was mated with St. Leonards, Sepoy being the result. Sea Serpent died before his time to race.

Select, by Ethelbert—High Society, was bred by R. H. Anderson at Tea's Over Stud, Georgetown, Ky., and was sold as a yearling to J. Schlosser for $250. He is a half-brother to Gwene Haddock, High Society was a winner, was bred by W. S. Barnes and she is a half-sister to Britisher, The Lady in Blue, and Wilson, the latter winner of twenty-eight races.

Fresh, by Previous—Wild Bess, was bred by W. P. Knight at Nicholasville, Ky., and was sold to H. K. Knapp for $1,000. He is the second foal of his dam, but her first to race. Her first foal was a brown filly by On Deck, which was bought as a yearling and retired by the Breeders' Protective Association at Lexington, Ky.

Sylvia, G., by Masetto—Java, was bred by A. Russell Peabody, the New York lawyer and turfman, at E. S. Gardner's Avondale Stud in Tennessee, and was sold as a yearling to A. L. Aste for $350. She is a half-sister to Javanese, Palaver and Islander. Java was never raced. She is a half-sister to Janeiro, a winner, and dam of Mamie Lynch. Her dam was the good English mare Judith.

LATEST FOREIGN RACING GOSSIP.

Sieve Gallion Rules Favorite for the Derby—Eremon Wins Another Prize.

Sieve Gallion is the favorite at 4 to 1 for the Derby, which is to be run at Epsom Downs, in England, Wednesday, June 5. Galvania is next fancied at 5 to 1. Then comes All Black at 100 to 9, Woolwinder at 100 to 8, Bezonian at 100 to 7, and the French horse Ouadi Halfa at 100 to 7. Since his victory in the Earl of Sefton's Plate at Liverpool Richard Croker's Orby has come into notice for the Derby. There is a quotation of 20 to 1 against him in the latest London betting.

G. Clancy, the English steeplechase jockey, has been engaged to ride in Denmark during the coming summer.

The six-year-old Dean Swift, which is to carry 119 pounds, is the favorite at 6 to 1 for the City and Suburban Handicap, at one mile and a quarter, which is to be run at Epsom Downs in England next Wednesday.

Alex Carter rode the winners of four of the six races over the jumps at Auteuil, France, April 4.

Kozak, a fourteen-year-old horse owned by R. C. de Crespiigny, won the Wainford Plate for steeple-chasers at the Bungay meeting in England, April 4. He was ridden by his owner, who has to his credit fifteen victories in sequence out of seventeen rides.

Mr. Sebastian Nolan, a distinguished Irish sportsman, died at his home, Gentian Hill, in Galway, April 3. He won the Irish Derby with Noble Howard in 1898 and owned many horses that raced in England and Ireland. Among them was The Arrowed, which was brought to this country last winter and is now in the stud at J. V. Shipp's Sunny Slope Farm, Midway, Ky.

A. Essmann, a nephew of the Consul-General for Denmark, was killed at Datchet, England, April 1. He was an amateur rider of some distinction and was schooling his horse over a steeplechase course when the animal swerved, pitched the young man on to his head and then rolled over him.

The attendance at Auteuil on Easter Sunday is said to have been the largest in the history of the course and the statement has been issued that "over $500,000 were turned over at the pari-mutuel offices."

The two big international races at Ostend, the Grand Prix d'Ostende and the Grand Critérium d'Ostende, will close for entries April 30 and they will be run Sunday, July 7, and Sunday, July 14, respectively. Both races are open to horses from all countries. The first is for three-year-olds and upward, penalties and allowances, at one mile and about 600 yards. It has a value of $20,000, of which $4,000 goes to the second; $2,000 to the third, $1,000 to the fourth, and $500 to the fifth horse. The other race is for two-year-olds at four and one-half furlongs. It will be worth $10,000, of which $2,000 to the second, $1,000 to the third, and $600 to the fourth horse.

The veteran Ypsilanti, half-brother to Fred Littlefield's good two-year-old, Jubilee, is still earning money for A. P. Cundiffe in England. He made his first start of this year in the Rothschild-Welter Plate at one mile over the Jubilee Course at Kempton Park on April 1 and finished second to Summer, a three-year-old son of Bushey Park. It was on this course that Ypsilanti earned distinction for himself and brought greater respect for American-bred horses as well as two big pots of gold to his owner by winning twice the Great Jubilee Handicap.

Stanley Howard's Eremon followed up his Grand National success with a victory in the Lancashire Handicap Steeplechase of $10,000, over the three miles and a half at Manchester, April 1. He was ridden by A. Newer, who was his pilot in the memorable race at Liverpool.

American jockeys who are figuring conspicuously in the racing in France this year are Johnny Reiff, J. Ranch, Winnie O'Connor, Cormack, Milton Henry and J. McIntyre, while Nash Turner takes an occasional mount in the high weight division. He has ridden at 128 pounds.

Robert L'Anson, once a famous jockey, is dangerously ill at his home in Epsom. He lost his wife April 2 as the result of an operation, and his brother, Thomas L'Anson, who was distinguished as a handicapper for the National Hunt Committee, died March 28.

THOUGHT RYE A CINCH.

"It turned out yesterday that before the running of the Carter Handicap Dave Johnson made all sorts of overtures to the Sullivans to scratch Rye and let him have Miller to ride Roseben," says the New York Sun of Wednesday.

"But the Sullivans thought they had a sure thing and thereby lost a chance to win a handsome sum from the books. Johnson still believes that if Beckman had not taken Roseben around the field, but had waited in behind for an opening near the rail at the stretch, Roseben would have won in a canter. The plunger said yesterday that he cared nothing for the money he lost in wagers, but he felt sorry that Roseben could not have retired with two Carter Handicap victories to his credit."

WAITING FOR MOLLIE MONTROSE.

"Judging from the easy victory of Notasulga in the Rose Stakes, horsemen who saw the race declared that George H. Holle's unbeaten two-year-old filly, Mollie Montrose, must be an unusually high-class youngster," says the New York Sun. "At New Orleans on two occasions during the winter Mollie Montrose took the measure of Notasulga without much exertion. For that reason, and taking Tuesday's race into consideration, there will doubtless be much interest shown in the first appearance of Mollie Montrose here, which will be in the near future, it is said."

TRUE WING'S ROUGH TRIP.

ALL BUT LEFT AT THE POST, SHE WINS AFTER INTERFERENCE.

Race Causes Much Adverse Criticism—Ascot Park Horses Win Half the Oakland Card—Dwyer Starts Today.

Oakland, Cal., April 18.—Recent arrivals from Ascot Park, Dally, Otto Price and Bragg, won half the card here today. The improvement of Maxwell's filly caused much adverse comment. The first went to outsiders, the last going to True Wing, the odds-on favorite, after a series of costly mishaps that all but put the crack Ryan mare out of commission. The betting foreshadowed the something sensational that actually happened in the running. Ocean Shore, the second choice, received unusually heavy support from a certain clique led by several of the biggest ring operators. These layers also took great liberties with True Wing in the market and had not Ocean Shore, which enjoyed a commanding lead, bolted on the first turn, he would have certainly beaten the favorite, which was all but left at the post. Jockey Fischer is a marked man by the public. It is freely asserted that he does not always try his best and that his Ascot work was under suspicion before he came here. The horse Oratorian runs in and out in the most exasperating fashion. It is claimed that but for being nearly knocked down at the post by True Wing in the last race he would have won. His race was in glaring contrast to preceding ones.

This day was close to a record breaker for heat, attendance and enthusiasm. Richard Dwyer arrived from New Orleans this morning. He will begin his duties as starter tomorrow and continue until June 15, and possibly to the end of the meeting seven days later. This was Holtman's last day of starting. He leaves shortly for Lexington.

Bookmaker Charley Walters left for New York this morning. He had a prosperous season.

Most of the races of tomorrow are for the selling platters, but good horses are in evidence and with Tillinghast, Swagerlator, Connie M.; Nancy W.; Azusa, Avona; Peligroso, Alita Spa, Kogo; F. Neugent, Native Son, Mabel Hollander; Nine Spot, Corrigan, Iris; Sanfara, Ethel Day and Red Leaf included in the entries, the sport will be all that could be expected from a Friday's card.

VIOLA BELLE RAISED BY HAND.

Lexington, Ky., April 18.—In the barn of Walter Grater at the local track there is a two-year-old filly which has aroused much interest among horsemen here. Her name is Viola Belle and she is by Farandole, out of Bowden Lass, therefore a full sister to the good horse Hellobas. She is owned by George H. Whitney and was bred at his Melrose Stud. When she was four weeks old her dam died and, as a consequence, she had to be raised by hand, but she is above the average size of two-year-old fillies and in every way shows marked early development. Mr. Whitney will race her in his own colors, as he wishes to keep her for his stud. It is likely this orphan sister to Hellobas will go east late in the season in charge of the veteran trainer, Frank Jones, who developed her brother to the perfections which made him in the late '90s one of the stars of the racing world. Even after his wind became affected by disease that sterilized sprinter Voter had no easy task in taking his measure.

CHAUNCEY BLISS IS DEAD.

Chauncey Bliss, formerly of the firm of Kelly & Bliss, died at Batavia, N. Y., last Sunday. Mr. Bliss was 71 years of age and had been sick since Christmas day. Kelly & Bliss opened a poolroom at 15 West Twenty-eighth street, New York, in 1875, and the place soon became famous as it attracted the patronage of all the big guns of the turf. Poolrooms were run wide open at that time. Auction pool selling was the popular form of speculation in those days and prominent turfmen and speculators gathered there in the evening to buy pools on the following day's races. Later on the firm took up booking as it is now conducted, and for years had the field book privilege at Monmouth Park. Mr. Bliss made a fortune and was wealthy at his death. He was the last of the old line of eastern bookmakers and poolroom proprietors, which included Morrissey, Cridge, Murray, Lovell and Johnson.

HEAVY FINE AGAINST HUBER.

Newport, Ky., April 18.—George P. Huber, who owns a summer garden in the outskirts of this city, was fined $10,000 by a jury in the Campbell Circuit Court yesterday afternoon for permitting the operation of a poolroom on his premises. Several months ago Huber rented the big pavilion in his garden to George Ehrlich, who has since been running the poolroom there. At the last session of the court Ehrlich was fined $5,000. New trials have been asked for in both cases.

METROPOLITAN HANDICAP WEIGHTS.

Weights for the Metropolitan Handicap, which will be run at Belmont Park, May 9, have been announced by Mr. Vosburgh and have been so well adjusted as to assure a big field of starters and a glorious contest. As befits the champion money winner of last year, Accountant has been assigned the top weight at 126 pounds, followed by Roseben, 124; Go Between, 122; Dr. Gardner, 120, and Dandelion, 120. Glorifier is given 119, which in view of the way the Carter Handicap was run, seems to put him at a disadvantage as compared with Roseben. The latter failed signally last year when asked to go a mile and a quarter in high-class company, but he has repeatedly shown that a mile is well within his range and it seems that he should at least hold all the heavyweights safe. Of the more lightly-weighted division, Whimsical, 114; Inquisitor, 112; Grapple, 112; Oxford, 112; W. H. Carey, Minnie Adams, Halifax and Brookdale Nymph, 110; First Premium, 109; Don Diego, 106; Suffrage, 105; Jugger and De Mund, 104; Cressina, 103, and Sewell, 100, constitute a great array of speedy horses favorably handicapped, and it would be no surprising thing if Suffrage should win this race with but 105 pounds to carry. Of the still lighter weights, Philander, Zambesi, J. C. Core, Belle of Pequest, Colonel Jack, Tartan, Zienap, Bat Masterson, Menthia, Ben Ban and Ampedo are not without chances. All around Mr. Vosburgh appears to have done a good piece of work in handicapping the Metropolitan horses and the weights are as follows:

RACING AT SEVEN TRACKS JUNE 15.

Unless the Hamilton Jockey Club concludes to make its spring meeting eleven days instead of twelve there will be racing at seven tracks Saturday, June 15, with four meetings on the Northern Circuit clashing. As the dates are now arranged Hamilton and Montreal are both to close June 15 and Windsor and Buffalo are to open on that day. The Hamilton Jockey Club has been requested by the Buffalo and Windsor people to close its meeting June 14. Whether or not this will be done Secretary Loudon has not announced as yet. In addition to these four tracks Belmont Park, Latonia and Oakland will be racing June 15.

SOME STABLE INFORMATION.

Louisville, Ky., April 18.—Lon Johnson, one of Schreiber's trainers, arrived at Churchill Downs today. He says the horse that beats Jack Atkin will win the Kentucky Derby.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Old Black Fox is in training at Lexington.

Workwatchers at Louisville have tabbed Bean Brummel to win the Clark Handicap. Others working well at Churchill Downs are Colonel Bob, Gold-proof and Lexoline.

Eddie Burke and Leo Mayer, the bookmakers who were victims of an automobile accident on the way home from Aqueduct on Monday, are said to have been so seriously hurt yesterday that they will be unable to resume business for a week or ten days.

Time, 2:24. 48s, 52s.

Winner—Br. f. by Giganteum—Daldi (trained by W. P. Maxwell).

Went to post at 1:46. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same.

Daily from a striding outside start instantly got into close pursuit of the pacemaker, drew up alongside in the stretch and just lasted the journey. Gin Hee, away slowly, moved up rapidly on the extreme outside, gamely and just failed to get up. Kismet Jr. broke fast and showed the way to the stretch, where he tired badly. Husky, knocked to the rear at the start, closed a big gap and finished going fastest of all. Billy Watkins steadily improved his position under a bad ride. Gaga showed early speed.

Jack Paine also showed speed from a poor send-off. The others had scant chance after the start closer up with a better start. Berry Maid closed up ground in the stretch and ran a good race. Hands Around was gaining fast at the end and would have been third in another sixteenth. Biskra and Matches Mary showed early speed.

Scratched—Divorcee, 104.

68279 SECOND RACE—7-8 Mile. (1:26—3—101.) $700 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $610.

Winner—Ch. f, by Victory—Furlano (trained by J. H. McCormick).

Went to post at 2:58. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Mary Morris was best, ran well and won going away, but Sumter was of little help and was whipping at the finish when the race was won. Lady Alicia came from far back and led momentarily in the stretch but tired right at the end. Eudora showed the most early speed but tired badly and can do better. Little Woods is not of much account. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Scratched—Little Woods, 106.

68280 THIRD RACE—1 Mile. (1:38—3—106.) $1,000 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap. Net value to winner $790.

Winner—Ch. c, by Ed Farrell—Bettie Bramble (trained by J. Blute).

Went to post at 3:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. W. H. Carey was bumped right after the start and knocked back, but closed up in game fashion and coming through the stretch with a grand rush won cantering. Samuel H. Harris showed the most early speed and while readily succumbing to the winner gamely saved second place. Tartan ran a fast three-quarters but was poorly ridden in the stretch and swerving in the final drive. The others were not contenders when the real racing began but Umbrella slowed a burst of early speed.

Winner—B. c, by Griffon—Blue Bells (trained by A. G. Blakeley).

Went to post at 3:36. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Blue Heron from a flying start quickly established small lead and gamely standing off all challenges sent it to the end. There was much crowding at the start and Masks and Faces was knocked far back but closed a big gap, finished fast and might have won but for the mishap. Tartar Maid was a close contender all the way. Rifle Range ran well and finished close up. Merrimac showed speed but failed to stay. Rosebloom got off poorly. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.

Scratched—68255 Rosario, 99; Benrose, 99.

Overweights—Masks and Faces, 1 pound.

68282 FIFTH RACE—5-8 Mile. (59¹—4—101.) $700 added. 3-year-olds. Selling. Net value to winner $750.

Winner—Ch. c, by Troubadour—Run of Luck (trained by A. Zimmer).

Went to post at 4:29 at post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Ace High got off forwardly and quickly forcing into the lead set a fast pace and after being headed in the last sixteenths rallied and won out under a good ride. Sir Toddington was in close pursuit throughout and after appearing the winner near the finish tired right at the end. Berkely was always prominent and a fast going third. Barbara Belle showed speed but tired and probably was short. Jersey Lady ran a good game race. Nigger Mike went well. Anna May had no chance at the start. The winner was in for $800; no bid.
